

“Creating conditions for Solar Photovoltaic to go large”

1st Round table, 14th of May 2007

12.00-14.30

Renewable Energy House – Rue d’Arlon 63- 65 - Brussels

“Setting the debate: Policies for the Solar Photovoltaic sector”

Programme:

Moderator: Daniel Guéguen

12.00-12.10 Presentation of Round table participants

12.10-12.30 Introduction:

- State of play at EU-level, current initiatives and legislative measures. Eleni Despotou, General Secretary, EPIA
- Impact of past and future EU Policies on the Photovoltaic sector. Dr. Murray Cameron, Vice President of EPIA and COO of Phoenix SonnenStrom AG

12.30-13.00 Round table - Panelists

- European Commission – Pietro Menna, DG TREN
- Council of the European Union – Michael Schultz, Councillor for Energy, German Permanent Representation to the EU
- Industry - Dr. Murray Cameron, Vice President of EPIA and COO of Phoenix SonnenStrom AG
- Eleni Despotou, General Secretary, EPIA
- Journalist – Dafydd ab Iago, journalist, Europolitics.

The participants will elaborate on:

- Potential of the PV sector;
- The PV sector’s role in the EU-energy package and the SET Plan;
- What can be done at EU and Member State level?

13.00-13.30 Discussion

13.30-13.35 Conclusions

13.30-14.15 LUNCH

After the lunch a tour of the “Renewable Energy House” is offered to the participants.

The debate is free of charge!

Location: Renewable Energy House, Rue d’Arlon 63-65, 1040 Brussels

Sponsor of the EPIA lunch-debate

Partner of the EPIA lunch-debates

This round-table is organized within the frame of the EC-funded project “PV Policy Group”

